Greetings Beloved Mistlands,

We are in final preparations for the selection of Our Heirs. We can not express how excited we are to welcome Our Lord and Lady of the Mists. Hopefully you can join us in this joyous event.

We would be remiss if We did not address the actions of our Brother Cynagua. His Highness Raven has made several scouting trips into Our Lands. While we have welcomed Our Brother, I fear he has been scouting Our Land for an invasion. This will not stand! We invite Our Populace and Warriors to join Us on the battlefield. The Mists Cynagua War will allow the West army to prepare for our trip to the Great Western War.

Your Amir and Princess continue to need your assistance. There are many in our Populace worthy of recognition. Please submit your award recommendations.

Fall Coronet AS LX Highlights

Good Greetings! As many of you know we will be having a memorial C&T tournament to honor our friend Ruprecht Keller's (Steven Schwartz) love of C&T.

Part of this endeavor is to many of Ruprecht's items find new homes.

The participating fighters will have first pick of garb, rapier gear, armored fighting gear, historical swords, and other items.

But we also invite members of the populace to come after the tournament participants and find something they will find useful on their SCA journey.

This is what Ruprecht wanted.

Yours is Service

Antei Kikaku OD/ Savage Buffie

A&S! Mists Fall Coronet

Competition Five: Masks & Mirrors

How we see ourselves, and how others see us, has been the focus of magic and ritual since time immemorial. Clothing oneself in wolfskin to run under the moon, or using a mirror to apply makeup to subtly change one's face, masks and mirrors can be used to hide or reveal the true self. Artisans are challenged to find and research myths and artifacts associated with masks, disguises, and mirrors, and how different cultures bring these items into their stories.

Competition Six: Legendary Armor

Made by esteemed artisans and crafted by magic from special materials, legendary armor protects more than just the wearer. From Gorgan's Heads affixed to shields, swords and spears imbued with power, to the Helmet of Rostam which was crafted from the head of a slain demon, Artisans are encouraged to scour the myths of the world to find rare magical weaponry.

Silver Spoon Mists Fall Coronet – Pilgrimage. Create a dish that would have been carried by someone on a pilgrimage. What kind of breads travel well? Dried foods? Some pilgrimages lasted months. What foods helped sustain them?

Our Principality Needs You!

The SCA is a volunteer-run organization, and there are plenty of opportunities to support the Principality of the Mists and use your valuable skills and talents (not to mention gain tons of gratitude and glory!) as an Officer of the Principality. The following Officers are currently seeking deputies to train as successors:

The Principality Webminister, responsible for maintenance and update of our Principality website is seeking a deputy successor. Interested parties should reach out to Elewys Gwynne.

The Regalia Minister makes sure that all regalia gets to and leaves events intact and is stored appropriately, is seeking someone to assist her with the carrying to and from of the regalia. Please contact Rebecca Redarrow for details.

Events like this need MANY HANDS to make them happen. Please consider volunteering in an informal capacity:

Lists will need List Pages. See the Lists Minister to help.

Field heralds will be needed through out the day. Maybe you would like to learn how to Herald? Talk to the heralds at Herald's point.

Talk to the Principality Marshal to help with the Heavy and Rapier fighting.

If Her Highness can do it, what's stopping you?
